Cisco Softphone VoIP WebEx telephone

Lösung (öffentlich)

You can use the profile icon (the circle with the initials at the top left) to sign out of the services or to exit the WebEx softphone application.

Sign out:

You actively sign out your current login from the WebEx services. The application restarts with the login screen and you can log in again with any login data.

Exit WebEx:

You exit the softphone application, it closes but remembers the login data and restarts with the last login data the next time you start the software.
